

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE

Senate

STATE CAPITOL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA
95814

AGENDA
JOINT OVERSIGHT HEARING
Energy, Utilities and Communications and Environmental Quality

ExxonMobil Torrance Refinery Explosion: Community Impacts, Emergency Response, and Long-term Safety

Thursday, March 5, 2015

6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Torrance Civic Center – City Hall
City Council Chambers – 1st Floor
3031 Torrance Boulevard, Torrance

I. Welcome and Opening Statements

- Senator Ben Hueso, Chairman
Senate Committee on Energy, Utilities and Communications
- Senator Bob Wieckowski, Chairman
Senate Committee on Environmental Quality

II. Affected Residents and Emergency Response

a. Members of Community Directly Affected or Harmed by Explosion

- Torrance Residents
- Donald Stabler, Deputy Superintendent for Administrative Services
Torrance Unified School District
- Dave Campbell, Secretary-Treasurer
United Steelworkers, Local 675

b. Description of Incident and First Response

- David A. Dumais, Deputy Fire Chief
City of Torrance Fire Department
- Bill Jones, Chief
Los Angeles County Fire Department, Health Hazardous Materials Division
- Dr. Barry Wallerstein, Executive Officer
Southern California Air Quality Management District
- Representative
ExxonMobil

III. Living Next to a Refinery: How Do We Know it is Safe?

- David A. Dumais, Deputy Fire Chief
City of Torrance Fire Department
- Bill Jones, Chief (Member, Interagency Refinery Safety Task Force)
Los Angeles County Fire Department, Health Hazardous Materials Division
- Clyde J. Trombetta, Statewide Manager & Policy Advisor (Member, Interagency Refinery Safety Task Force)
California Department of Industrial Relations/California Occupational Safety and Health Administration
- Dr. Barry Wallerstein, Executive Officer
Southern California Air Quality Management District
- Kim Zagaris, Chief of Fire and Rescue (Member, Interagency Refinery Task Force)
California Office of Emergency Services

IV. Public Comment